

Leadership Excelleration, Inc. Creates a Visionary Approach for Newly Promoted Leaders' Success

Conquer the seven enemies that cause 4 in 10 newly promoted leaders to fail.

In The Ascending Leader, after 16 years of experience coaching hundreds of leaders, Egbers and Schenck identify proven strategies to overcome the seven enemies of success that newly promoted leaders face. The comprehensive guide provides for a smooth and productive transition with practical tools to ensure that critical knowledge is acquired and key relationships are developed. As a result, leaders are prepared to articulate a compelling vision and focused business plan.

Each chapter addresses one of seven common failures and provides winning strategies and appropriate tools to help readers plan and overcome career limiting obstacles. With attention to these strategies, newly promoted leaders can succeed where 4 in 10 others fail.

Egbers and Schenck, back up their findings with real client success stories, demonstrating that their practical, real-world strategies have a proven track record.

Entwined throughout the book is the captivating fable of Peter and Max, bringing to life the key message of each ensuing chapter and providing invaluable information in a fresh and memorable way. The Ascending Leader is a valuable asset for any leader aspiring to move up the corporate ladder, and for any organization hoping to promote wisely.
